Construction Cost Estimation Preparation Manual for Final Engineer's Estimates BDC02T-02

April 05, 2002

Subject: Release of Construction Cost Estimation Preparation Manual for Final Engineer's Estimates

Reference: Refer to BDC02PR-01, dated April 04, 2002 for related information

The Construction Cost Estimation Preparation Manual for Final Engineer's Estimates, is a new publication. This document is to be used by the designers to produce Final Engineer's Construction Cost Estimate on Department projects.

This manual is to be used for Department projects developed in either Metric or English units. The following ADUs and APCs, which have been incorporated into the manual, are superseded:

Date	Type	Subject
February 4, 1994	ADU	Construction Contingencies
May 28, 1993	ADU	Asphalt Price Adjustment
January 21, 1993	ADU	Fuel Price Adjustment
August 27, 1992	APC	Construction Engineering Cost Estimates
July 1, 1992	APC	Payment for Insurance Federal Aid Estimates
April 20, 1990	ADU	Clean Existing Pipe
July 16, 1985	APC	Training Special Provisions

Instructions to Designers

This manual shall be followed by designers to develop Final Engineer's Construction Cost Estimate for projects that are designed using either the Department's 2001 Metric or English units Standard Specifications for Road and Bridge Construction.

The designers are advised that the contents of Subsection 4.3.3.1 entitled "Preparation of Final Engineer's Construction Estimate", of the NJDOT Procedures Manual have been replaced by this new manual and thus shall be followed. Revisions to NJDOT Procedures Manual Subsection 4.3.3.1 has been issued by a separate BDC announcement (BDC02PR-01).

However, the Submittal Procedure for Final Engineer's Estimate as mentioned in Subsection 4.3.3.2 of the NJDOT Procedures Manual is currently being revised with revisions forthcoming in the near future.

Distribution to In-House Staff and Various Outside Agencies

This announcement is being distributed to our in-house staff and various outside agencies based on our Construction Cost Estimation Preparation Manual distribution list maintained by the Engineering Documents unit.
